WHAT YOU MISSED IF YOU WERE ABSENT

Many members wore their favorite College colors to support their school of choice.

I can say we hit a new low in singing, as we couldn’t fine the right key for Auld Lang Syne. Even so we were enthusiastic!

Some member shared New Years resolutions for 2006, and others called them “Goals”. If you did make some resolutions or set some goals for the New Year, good luck in seeing them through to completion.

RAFFLE TICKETS WERE DISTRIBUTED, IF YOU WERE ABSENT SEE CAPT. CHUCK...

Local and international Rotary clubs and districts have contributed more than US$5 million in cash and in kind toward emergency relief to survivors of the deadly 8 October earthquake, according to Pakistan Rotary leaders.

Jacket auction winner raises US$5,000 for The Rotary Foundation

After closely following the competition in a three-month silent auction for RI President Stenhammar's reversible jacket, Bruno Ghigi secured his win with a bid of US$5,000. The past president of the Rotary Club of Rimini Rivera, Italy, now becomes the new owner of the blue-and-gold jacket modeled by Stenhammar at the 2005 RI Convention.

Heard from Tampa Bay FL

Webster City native Tim Anderson understands the importance of Iowa fans after playing defensive tackle for the Hawkeye’s in the mid-1980s. He now is one himself.

"It's a great following," Anderson said. "It's our pro sport."

"You can feel it out on the field," he said. "It's a big boost. It's great to have a great fan base behind you."

Tim is Past President of the Webster City Rotary Club
