WHAT YOU MISSED IF YOU WERE ABSENT

We had just a few announcements- Raffle sales are just over $5000.00 gross, the Basketball Tournament was a huge success with gross receipts over $4700.00 before expenses.

We inducted Lori Carlson as a new member. She is a real estate lender at Community National Bank.

Also, our Student of the Month, Heather, gave her speech. And Bev Eckholt did her classification talk.

Our speaker was Bob Ziegler from the Mercy Sleep Disorder Center. He told us that there are 88 different sleep disorders. He gave a list of symptoms that would indicate sleep apnea and other disorders.

Sleep apnea affects 10-15% of our population. Most disorders are treatable, but only a small percentage of those affected seek help. Contact your primary physician for a referral to their lab.

R I PRESIDENT BILL BOYD WILL BE VISITING IOWA

Rotary International President Bill Boyd and wife Lorna will be in Iowa February 13-14.

He will visit with Rotarians in the Quad Cities on the 13th and be in Cedar Rapids on the 14th.

I believe this will be the 3rd Presidential visit to Iowa in the 100+ years of Rotary existence.

Further information will be made available through our club leadership.
