WHAT YOU MISSED If you were absent

“Chuck” filled in for Gary with our warm up game of Trivial Pursuit. The “East Team” soundly defeated the “West Team”, by answering extremely difficult questions without any hesitation.

Colleen Young from the Mason City Chamber spoke to us regarding current and upcoming activities. The previous evening was the annual Bowling Event, and some were still feeling the effects of that one!

An educational Seminar titled “Mixing & Managing Generational Differences” presented by guest speaker Andrea Fredrickson was held Feb 12th. This program helped the work place blend the “Veterans”, “Baby Boomers”, “GenXers”, & “Nexters”.

Planning for the 26th +/- Ag Breakfast is well under way. Check with the Chamber office for reservations.

The annual (70th) North Iowa Band Festival and related activities will be held May 22-25. A special feature this year will include a
76 Trombone Marching Band

Again, contact the Chamber office if you want to be part of the Band.

A multi Chamber Business Expo is planned and will be held at the Diamond Jo Business Center. Watch for more information.

Volunteer workers are always needed to make these events successful.
