WHAT YOU MISSED IF YOU WERE ABSENT

Ann MacGregor, the Director of the “Wright on the Park” organization spoke regarding the restoration of the Frank Lloyd Wright designed Park Inn Hotel and City National Bank building in downtown Mason City.

This only remaining Wright designed hotel has been the focus of restoration for the past 7 years. “Wright on the Park” entered the picture in 2005, and now operates as the managing group that is pursuing the completion of the project.

The Hotel will be opened with as much of the original look in place, with modern conveniences included in the re-construction. A tentative completion of 2010, the 100 year anniversary of the original construction, is planned.

The City National Bank building, now Moorman Clothiers, is to be purchased, and the restoration of that building will follow the Hotel renovation.
