WHAT YOU MISSED IF YOU WERE ABSENT

Jim Fullerton told a wonderful verbal and visual story of his experiences of over 90 days in the Gulf Coast area in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina and Rita. Jim, a member of a national mortuary disaster team lent his expertise to the identification of remains that were displaced from their burial place by the flood water that covered thousands of square miles of the southeastern United States.

Jim's experiences led him to comment that the local authorities were unprepared and unable to cope with the disaster and that the Federal Government was in a support role, not to be the lead agency.

As 6 months have passed since the Hurricanes, many people's lives are still unsettled, and without permanent homes and shelter.

Thank you Jim, for your story and the service you've provided.

Remember to turn in your raffle ticket sales Dollars every Thurs. to Rich Malinaric. Rich makes a central committee report each week.
