WHAT YOU MISSED If you were absent

Dick Schinnow, from the Iowa Independent Film Festival committee, introduced us to this upcoming event.

The Festival committee has an office in Music Man Square. This volunteer group, will be presenting the 2nd Film Festival, running from April 25-27. Activities will be held in Music Man Square and the MacNider Art Museum.

Actors, Actresses, Directors, and Producers will be in attendance and the audience will have the opportunity to critique their work. Dick plans on as many as 30 Film Makers to be in town for the weekend.

At present 48 films some as long as 2 hours in length, will be shown. A 1 hour long documentary titled “Last Wright” will be about Frank Lloyd Wright. “Found in China” and “Back to China” are other films to be shown.

Awards are given at the end of the event, in many different categories.

Activities will run from noon to 10 pm each day. $50 all event passes are available and a $10 daily pass is also available.

Karen Black and Henry Jaglin are among the celebrities that will be attending. Karen was part of the “Easy Rider” cast.

There will be some opportunities to meet with the professionals during social events that are also part of the weekend.

This is just another answer to:

“What is there to do?”
