WHAT YOU MISSED If you were absent

Where would you be if you were without a parent or other adult in your life as you grew into an adult?

That is the dilemma faced by thousands of kids in Iowa, as their biological parents are unable or unwilling to accept parenting responsibilities.

This is where Iowa Kids Net, and its' partner organization Al Yad, Inc can help.

Iowa Kids Net works with both birth parents and foster parents to safely reunite the children with their birth families if at all possible.

If reuniting is not possible, they can work with the courts to facilitate foster families or adoptive families.

Al Yad is a non-profit organization focusing on children entering and residing in foster/residential homes and provides necessities' to them making transitions nicer.

They can also provide extra curricular equipment such as musical instruments and sports equipment.

Only ½ enough homes and families are available to cover the needs of these children.
