WHAT YOU MISSED IF YOU WERE ABSENT

Shirley Stoyles, from the American Cancer Society, talked to us about the upcoming Relay for Life fund raising event.

Shirley, a cancer survivor herself, has been active along with her husband Bill, in the education and prevention of the cancer disease for many years.

The American Cancer Society was formed in 1946.

The local "Relay" takes place June 1-2, at Mohawk Stadium. There are many teams that participate and all will be happy to receive your support with personal participation or financial contributions.

In addition to the fund raising piece of the event, cancer survivors are honored and victims are memorialized.

GSE team will visit Mason City Contact Ray Shimak if you can provide overnight housing

Vocational Service Award nominations are being collected. Contact Diane Horning for application forms and other information.

The club Board of Directors is accepting recommendations for service project funding. Talk to President Paula for more information.

Dr Bob filled in for the absent President Paula

Bev reported our club sold more than 1000 Raffle Tickets. A more complete report will be given in the next couple of weeks. Thanks to all!
