WHAT YOU MISSED If you were absent

Ted Rose and Susan Hill, both Rotarians, who have devoted their lives to Project Amigo, were our guests. This is a humanitarian program that works with underprivileged Mexican children, providing educational scholarships to qualifying students some of whom will earn professional degrees.

Our club along with Mason City Noon has long been a sponsor of students in this program.

Our student, Aide Carrilo continues to make good progress in her studies. The program, centered in the town of Colima, was first brought to our attention by Mary Hardin, a noon Rotarian who has a home in the area.

In addition to our club support, several individual Sunrise Rotarians make personal contributions to the program.

Students also receive medical and dental care.

School supplies and usable clothing is also distributed.

We are encouraged to join the team in Colima, during one of the Winter Work Weeks.
