WHAT YOU MISSED IF YOU WERE ABSENT

Paul presents PHF + 1 recognition to Cal Dickson

Greg Benedict, Mason City Noon Club President, invited us to the Annual Noon Club picnic to be held at the Central Gardens on a date to be determined in August. Tim Becker is chairing the event. More information will follow. Greg also plans to include the Sunrise club in this Rotary year funding raising events.

FLYS Extravaganza

Susan Nagel, a board member at Francis Lauer Youth Services, told us about the services offered to primarily young males in the North Iowa community.

Temporary shelter, day treatment, foster home care, and family counseling, are among the services offered by FLYS.

On site sheltering costs $160 per day, with only $130/day being captured to offset that expense from primarily government aid.

A major fund raiser was held at in the gardens of Dan and Debbi Latham, last Saturday.

Many auction items were available to those in attendance. This event raised $75,000 last year and the hope is to exceed that figure this year.

Susan Nagel, FLYS Board Member
