WHAT YOU MISSED

If you were absent

Jean McAleer, Executive Director of Francis Lauer spoke to us regarding the services offered troubled youth from our area.

820 lives were touched in the recent year.

Jean told us there are “homeless” youth in our area, living in cars or even under bridges. FLY can offer a temporary shelter for these young people providing a warm, safe environment while more permanent arrangements can be made.

FLY reaches out to the entire family, when possible, to create a better atmosphere for the children.

Average stay is 9 months, and the home boasts an 80% success rate.

With 63 full and part time employees, FLY offers both in and out patient services.

Cal Dickson presented a check for $500 to Jean to be used in the advancement of the FLY programs. These funds came from proceeds of last years Raffle.

Jean McAleer, Francis Lauer Exec Director

The wrap up of this years Raffle will be New Years Eve at the Surf Ball Room in Clear Lake.

All tickets must be accounted for by that time. Bring money and unsold tickets to the meeting on Thursday (12/27). Contact Diane Horning if you have any questions.
